Winter Book Retreat Ten Evenings With God, by Ilia Delio

"...the source of our happiness and freedom lies in God when we come to know ourselves in God. To discover our identity is to find God, and to find God is to discover happiness in which lies our freedom."

With these words from the Introduction, author and theologian Ilia Delio invites readers to walk with her through ten short reflections on discernment as framed by fundamentals of the Christian life.

Wondering about where you are at in life? Or where you are headed? Join in this Winter book retreat to share questions, thoughts, and ideas! The group will meet January – March 2023 by ZOOM on Sunday evenings. Come for one or two meetings, or all ten. All are welcome.

Pastor Scott's Message...

The Pastor's Perspective ...

I would like to begin this month by offering my sincere gratitude to Dale Siulinski for his service as our Moderator for the last two years. The global pandemic and the associated challenges have not been easy to navigate, but Dale did a wonderful job of guiding us through. I wish Dale and Lynne well as they enjoy some much-deserved time in the warmth and sunshine of Florida.

Speaking of Dale ... at our last Church Council meeting, he included an item on the agenda that read: "Consider what is important to Scott. What are you dreaming about?" At the Annual Affirmation Meeting on Sunday, I told you that I have a list of things that I would like to focus upon in the coming year. Let me share a couple of those items with you.

Worship: In the area of our worship services I would like to encourage increased participation from the members of our church family. I would love to have more people ... young and older ... serve as liturgists and readers. I would love to include people in skits or drama that will help to open up the scripture readings or illumine the morning message. (I should not be the only one that gets to wear costumes.) I would love to have people make loaves of bread for communion Sundays. In addition, I am exploring the possibility of offering "quiet" worship services for veterans and others that suffer with PTSD. For those with PTSD, or other anxiety disorders, the crowds and the volume of a traditional worship service can be overwhelming. As I have done some initial investigation, I have not seen any churches in the area that offer quiet worship services.

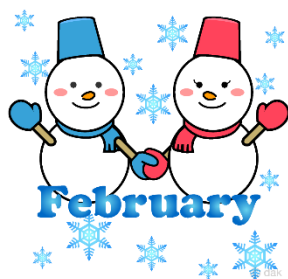

Invitation: Some people struggle with the word "evangelism," so let us use a different word ... invitation. Let us focus upon getting the word out and sharing what is happening here at First Parish Church. We live in one of the most unchurched regions of the country. How do we invite people to come and experience all of our wonderful ministries? How do we engage with the wider community? How do we become a gathering place for our neighbors?

Every Sunday is "invite a friend" Sunday, but perhaps we can seek ways to be more intentional about that. Perhaps we could encourage "Social Media Sundays" when those who are active on various platforms share what is happening here at the church. Perhaps we could encourage greater involvement and participation with Saco Main Street and The Heart of Biddeford.

Engagement and Integration: How do we get to know one another better? How do we get to know the new members and how do they get to know those who have been here for a while? Attending worship is an important part of life in our church family, but how can we feel like we are "family" if we do not know one another? We are going to continue with our Common Table gatherings that we began last year. In addition, we will offer new member gatherings both here at the church and at people's homes. And in addition to that, we will be planning monthly "Lunch with Pastor" and "Dinner with Pastor" events that will better enable me to hear and learn your stories. In fact, we put the first one on the church calendar. Please join me for lunch here at the church on Sunday, March 19. There will be a sign-up sheet in the office so that I will know how many we will be serving.

That is just one page from my List of Dreams. Do any of them speak to you? Do any of them pique your interest? Do you have any ideas of your own? Let me know. This is a community project. I would like to get you all involved.

Pastor Scott

Moderator Update

From the Moderator...

Another Annual Affirmation Meeting is in the books where we as a church body review and affirm everything we accomplished in the previous year, approve the Mission Plan and look to the coming year. We limited the meeting to in-person attendance this year. A personal touch is always preferred where you get to experience human emotion regarding the challenges we face and see where people's hearts truly dwell. The attendance was excellent and we attained a quorum easily. Thanks to all who participated.

One of the key outcomes from the meeting was to affirm the need for improved cohesion. You may recall that in previous years the Church Council embarked on performing an assessment to ensure that our organization and processes are optimized in order to capitalize on the great work of the church, ensuring that we are all working towards a common goal. While the work performed by each of the teams is impressive, their work is often siloed, where a joint effort may yield improved results. You have heard me speak of an Ad Hoc team known as the Organizational Governance Structure Team. This team met and reviewed the current governance structure which was put in place ten years ago. That structure designates sub-groups or ministries of the Church Council: Worship Ministry, Discipleship/Fellowship Ministry, and the Asset Ministry, with each of the 18 teams falling under one of those three ministries. A liaison from the Church Council is designated to work with each of those ministries to promote communication. However, it was recognized that over the years, this structure has not worked well and the team felt that reenergizing those ministries is not exciting. The Organizational Structure Team recognized that the Ministry structure should be replaced with another system. Therefore, the team recommended a new process where all team chairpersons attend the Church Council meeting quarterly to foster bidirectional communication. Teams could learn what's going on at the Council level, and the Council could receive their requests for any assistance. This would replace the Council liaison position that's part of the current ministry governance structure. Additionally, the Organizational Structure Team recommended that each team should issue three bullets to foster communication, including but not limited to: What is your team doing? What is your team most proud of? What does your team need help with? This process does not involve a change to the bylaws therefore it has already started. Marianne Cook, Church Clerk, will issue a reminder to team chairpersons each month in 2023 to offer their three bullets of information for distribution to all team chairpersons. Another recommendation that came out of the team meetings was to do something called a "wall of ideas" at some point in 2023 where people would record concerns or initiatives they are considering on a post-it note and place it on a wall, for review and discussion by all. You voted to affirm the Organizational team's recommendations. This will promote our true objective which is to covenant with one another and our community.

As I indicated previously, I am stepping down as your Moderator. I can't thank you enough for your engagement and support over the last couple of years. Your energy clearly demonstrates that you care deeply. First Parish is truly a church with love and hope to share.

Blessings and peace, Dale Siulinski

Deacon Ministry

Dear Friends,

We hope you are staying well during these winter months, and that you've been able to enjoy the beauty of the snow that now blankets our communities!

Today, we'd like to start by recognizing another of our dedicated Deacons! Nadine Russell joined First Parish Congregational Church in 2009 with her husband, Pete. In 2015, when Nadine was invited to join the Diaconate, she was extremely touched, as she viewed being a Deacon as a real commitment of faith. Nadine became a co-chair of the Diaconate 6 years ago. Nadine's favorite part of being a Deacon has been getting to know people in the congregation, aiming for conveying an "Extravagant Welcome" (an example that has been set by fellow Deacon Pam Mohlin). In addition, Nadine has enjoyed getting to know the other Deacons, and growing in her own faith journey.

Although Nadine has stepped down from being a co-chair last summer, she remains an active member of the Diaconate, supporting church services and mentoring new Deacons, in addition to being the active treasurer, and in charge of inventory and ordering. Nadine also keeps Active at church by being a counter, and one of the central volunteers at the Diaper Bank!

On another note, Pam Mohlin, will be stepping down as a Deacon, while continuing to lead the ever-increasing Diaper Bank mission. We thank Pam profusely for her dedication and leadership within the Diaconate, and will miss her deeply. We wish her well as she looks to the future.

As we look to February, we are looking forward to welcoming three new Deacons to the Diaconate: Linda Carroll, Susan Loker-Schneider and Jen Erickson! If you would like to consider joining with them, please see one of the Deacons or Pastor Scott for more information.

Blessings to you,

Margery Condon and Dan Carter
Diaconate Co-Chairpersons

Martin Luther King Day of Service January 16, 2023

Not A Day Off, But A Day On

Life's most urgent question is?
"What are you doing for others?"
-Martin Luther King

The weather outside was frightful but the time inside delightful.... Yes, once again, we had a snowy, sleety day for our 15th annual MLK Day of Service. With the help of over 40 volunteers we served 102 people, including 10 families. Our clients came from our tri city area of Saco, Biddeford and OOB but also from as far north as Portland, west as Alfred and south as Kennebunk. Our shoe ministry gave away over 125 pairs of shoes/boots. Our three hairdressers did

24 haircuts, with 24 head checks, and our medical students took 10 blood pressures. We helped 3 families with laundry and provided a hot breakfast, of eggs, fruit and muffins and a hot lunch, of chop suey, veggie and white bean chili or vegetable soup. We gave away a tremendous amount of warm clothing, new underwear, bras and socks. There were bins full of toiletries, shampoo, soap, toothpaste and toothbrushes and much more. We gave away free books for children and adults and a few games. Our Diaper Bank handed out 32 bags of diapers. People were as grateful as ever. Thank you to our two therapy dogs, Professor and Scotch. It would not be MLK day without you both. Thank you to Sue Burgess and the food crew. Thank you to all who helped sort and organize. Thank you to everyone that help set up the sanctuary after the Sunday service. Thank you to all those who donated items. Thank you to everyone who helped clean up. A big shout out to our custodian Guy, who could have had a day off but choose to spend it with us. Thank you to our dozen youth who helped serve food, shovel and clean up afterwards. We did all of this with a smile on our faces and a compassionate heart. Another great quote from MLK is this:

"Everybody can be great ... because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

Music Ministry

From Our Music Director

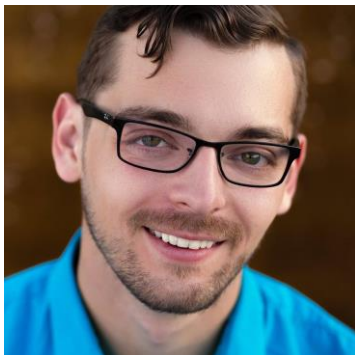

jacqui@firstparishsaco.org

In September 2022 I started a masters program in Choral Conducting. It has been a whirlwind organizing my schedule and my time but extremely rewarding. I met Will at a Beach and Main Coffee House in the Winter of 2022 and it was fun to connect with someone who grew up at the church and graduated from the University of Maine (where I also graduated). We studied with a lot of the same people and worked at a lot of the same churches! Funny that we never crossed paths until recently. Will and his wife AP directed the Musical "Into the Woods, Jr." and it was fun to get to know them both a bit better. I have enjoyed having Will accompany on Sundays so that I can get more conducting time. It really has brought out the very best in the choir. Last week the choir sang "Glow" while I directed, Linda McVety played cello, and Will played the piano. It was stunning.

William Sawyer

Will has been accompanying the choir on Sundays a couple times a month and will be continuing to do so through Spring. He grew up at First Parish and enjoyed singing with Peter Stickney. Will is a graduate from the University of Maine with a bachelors in music education and music performance. He has played piano for over 20 years. Will has recently moved back to Maine from Arizona and is currently teaching and accompanying throughout Southern Maine and is always ready and eager to play more music.

Junior Choir

The Junior Choir has had a very busy few months rehearsing and singing for the congregation. We rehearse every Wednesday at 5:15-5:45. In the winter months it's very dark, but still they come. Junior Choir parents are so faithful and bring their children to rehearsal each week.

We worked on two songs for the Christmas season, Mary, Mary and Go Tell it on the Mountain. We sang both songs for the Christmas Pageant then again for the Family Christmas Eve Service. We have been working on several songs that we learned in Vacation Bible School and we sang one of them in the service this past week. It was called Forever and Ever. The song calls for a lot of echoing, so it made it extra special to have Pastor Scott and Jacqui sing with us. Pastor Scott knows all of our songs, because he tries to come to all of our rehearsals. We love that he is part of our group.

We have several other songs that we are preparing for future services and, of course, Easter and Music Sunday. Rehearsals are never dull, in fact, they are filled with laughter, dancing and so much energy. Jacqui, Pastor Scott and I leave rehearsals filled with joy, because of our wonderful singers. PEACE WORKSHOP

The second peace workshop is scheduled for Sunday, February 5th 2023, from 1:30-4:00. The theme is "Pray for Peace People Everywhere". The schedule for the afternoon includes a discussion time, a time for individual hands-on art making and a closing sharing time.

The discussion will focus on artworks by Jean-Francois Millet and Sharon Cummings and will connect prayer to these works of art as we think about some questions:

Why do people pray?

When do people pray?

Where do people pray?

What do people pray for?

We will consider prayers of peace from various cultures and faith journeys, and of course, there will be a variety of art-making activities to choose from (building with Legos will be one of them).

This is an intergenerational activity for participants ages eight and up. Registration is limited to 15, and children ages 8-12 must be accompanied by an adult. All materials are provided. This is a free workshop funded by the Johnson-Atkinson Fund.

If you want to register or would like more information, contact Judy Foote at judyfoote@prodigy.net or talk to me at coffee hour.

Please indicate if your e-mail is a registration for the workshop and indicate age -child (8-12) or adult.

A request for more information.

Looking forward to a time together,

2023 Concert Series

Looking for Sponsors

The 2022 Concert Series was a wonderful success. Attendance at the concerts increased as the series progressed. People in the area are starting to talk about First Parish Church as "that church with the concerts." Performers are beginning to reach out and inquire about being a part of the series.

We thank you for all of your support for the 2022 season. The 2023 Season is about to get underway. We have the first six months scheduled. The performers include:

Duo Amie (1/29),
Jerks of Grass (2/11)
University of Maine Singers (3/16)
Pihcintu Chorus (4/23)
Local Music Live! Coffeehouse (5/6)
Catie Curtis (6/10)

In addition, we plan to conclude with the Chris Humphrey Big Band Christmas again.

As we begin this season, you are all aware that the church is running with a deficit budget for 2023. We really need the concert series to be a revenue stream to support our budget. If you are able, please consider becoming a sponsor for one (or more) of our concerts. Perhaps you, your business, or a group of friends could do it together. Sponsorships would enable all of the ticket revenue for the performance to go toward the church budget.

If you are interested in sponsoring a concert, please speak with Pastor Scott or with Jacqui Savage.

In the Spotlight

This new article in "The Messenger" will focus on our different teams and groups here at First Parish. We hope this will bring more understanding to you and provide information as to what each team does, when they meet and the current members of the team. Perhaps it may pique your interest enough to join a team and help First Parish keep the light shining for all to see.

The Investment Team manages the endowment portfolio of the Church and administers all bequests, trusts, legacies and other funds in strict compliance with the terms of the bequest in a way to facilitate the stated purpose and goals of the Church. The current restricted legacy funds support; Music & Arts, Mission, Christian Education, Flower & Altar, Building Administration and the Johnson Atkinson Spiritual Growth Fund. The remaining funds are unrestricted and support the Church's annual operating budget.

We meet with an independent financial advisor once or twice a year to review the status of the portfolio's stocks, bonds and cash accounts to ensure they are inline with the current and future needs of the church. The team may also meet during the year to discuss current issues and provide financial updates to Council and the congregation members. It is a great opportunity to get to know about the financial matters of the Church, keep it on a steady course to ensure sustainability and growth and be part of a great group of people. The Saco Food Pantry is careful about not wasting food, if at all possible. The produce that is not fit for human consumption is taken to the City of Saco's compost bins. If the pantry has an excess of certain items, those foods are put outside for anyone to take during business hours.

The Saco Food Pantry, located at 67 Ocean Park Road, is open Monday to Friday from 9:00 AM to 10:30 AM, and the last Tuesday of the month from 5:00 PM to 6:30 PM.
