The Common Table

On World Communion Sunday (October 2), I offered a message based upon Acts 2:43-47. The passage is Luke's quick summary about the Christian life in the first century. They shared everything in common, they helped those in need, they went to the Temple to learn and worship, and they broke bread together in their homes. Every meal was sacred because they did it in remembrance of Jesus. Every meal was sacred because they were together as a community.

There is sacredness in togetherness. Together we learn and grow. Together we love and serve. Together we deepen our affection for one another. Together we support one another. There is sacredness in sharing our lives with one another.

The Common Table is an invitation to do that ... to share togetherness.

What is The Common Table? What does it mean?

We are looking for people to host meals in their homes, or at the church. Each host will determine the date and time for the meal, as well as how many they can accommodate. Each host will also determine if they would like the meal to be potluck, or if they will provide the meal for their guests. The meals may be lunch or dinner... hosts' preference.

As the hosts offer their homes, we will extend the invitation to the church family to join you ... to break bread together. To sign up as a host, please contact me at scott.cousineau@firstparishsaco.org or Sue Burgess in the church office.

Pledge Cards

If you need a Pledge card for 2023, we have some available in the Narthex or contact the office at office@firstparishsaco.org.

Pastor Scott's Message...

The Pastor's Perspective ...

As we enter into November and December, we enter into "holiday" season. If you are like me, you have likely already had conversations with family and friends regarding your annual Thanksgiving dinners. Who is going to host, who is going to cook, etc. You may have already had family conversations about your Christmas celebrations. Who is going to host, who is going to cook, how is the gift exchange going to happen. There is so much to plan, and the time will go quickly. We will be tucking into that Thanksgiving dinner before we know it!

Here at the church, we are preparing for slightly different gatherings as we enter November. We too are getting ready to share Thanksgiving baskets with our neighbors in need. We too are thinking about Christmas worship services and sharing our gifts. And we are making plans for another gathering that will take place not long after Christmas ... our annual Affirmation Meeting. Our Generosity campaign is well underway, and our teams are creating their budget requests for the coming year. In addition to sharing your financial gifts ... your treasure ... we are hoping that you will consider the ways that you can also share your time and your talents.

In other churches with which I have ministered, this is the season of recruitment. This is the season during which people typically hid from me during coffee and fellowship hour lest I ask them to serve on a board or committee.

Our organizational structure is a little bit different here when it comes to our volunteers. We do not have "boards" and "committees," we have teams. The term "teams" sounds a lot less formal. Our teams do not have term limits. We also do not have a Nominating Team or a Recruitment Committee. Our teams are open to all who wish to serve on them. Therefore, I do not need to hunt you down during coffee hour ... or do I?

Consider this as your invitation to serve. It would be wonderful to have you join our teams. Some of our teams have members that have faithfully served on them for years. They would love to have you join them! Serving on a team is a great way to serve our church, serve our community, and also meet the other members of the church family. Serving is an important part of our call as a Christian community. The added benefit is that it also makes you feel better. Yes, it is true. Research shows that serving releases endorphins which actually help to elevate your mood. Please consider joining one (or more) of our teams.

The reality is that every member of the church family is a member of every team. We ALL share in the leadership and participation in worship. We ALL are responsible for our mission ministries. We ALL share the responsibility for educating our children and youth in the faith. We ALL are responsible for extending hospitality to guests and visitors. We ALL are responsible for being good stewards of our resources. Each and every one of you plays an important role in the life and ministry of First Parish Church. Thank you for all that you do.

May God bless you and may you be a blessing to others.

Pastor Scott

Moderator Update

From the Moderator...

November is one of those in-between months that I'd prefer to skip and go straight to December. The trees have lost their brilliance, the boys of summer have gone home, and historically there isn't a lot of snow to provide that beautiful blanket. But alas, December will be here before we know it.

Stewardship season is upon us! That time of year where you prayerfully reflect on what your faith means to you in the form of financial support to the church. While we totally appreciate whatever monies you may drop in the offering plate, it's important that you pledge so the Council can anticipate available monies and establish a budget for the coming year. Having an accurate idea of what financial support will be available allows us to plan, considering what expenses can be handled with the income that will be generated. The budget submitted by each team will help us understand and prioritize spending based on monies available. If you are the chairperson of a team and have not submitted your budget request for 2023, please do so as soon as possible. We will continue to share progress in regular communication with the congregation and seek your insights and guidance. We will also continue to have Witnessing Stewards speak about what First Parish means to them, in anticipation of Consecration Sunday, November 13. It's vital that we have a strong stewardship season whereas you may recall that we approved a deficit budget at the Annual Affirmation Meeting this year because we had money left over from 2021. However, we won't have that luxury in 2023. The Church Council will be reviewing and discussing budgets over the next couple of months. Budget hearings will be scheduled for December and January to allow your review and comments prior to Annual Affirmation.

We also encourage you to consider giving, not only in financial terms but in pledging your time and talent as well, by participating in one or more of the many groups and activities that First Parish has to offer. When we changed the governance structure of how the church functions ten years ago, we changed how people join teams and find fulfillment in volunteering. People are encouraged to join any team consistent with the passion in their hearts for the mission of that team. If you would like to assist the Senior Minister in the spiritual guidance of the congregation become a Deacon. If your talent lies in arranging greenery, join Flower and Altar. Joining a team promotes involvement which in turn creates a greater sense of value and commitment to the church, as well as an increased understanding of the objectives and decision-making that occurs. We welcome your participation!

Blessings and peace, Dale Siulinski

A Spiritual Opportunity

Dear Friends,

If you haven't already, please check out the upstairs worship space! (Formerly the All-Purpose Room, it has recently been transformed into an inviting and peaceful chapel, and location of the 8:00 Sunday worship service also known as Sacred Conversations.) Even better, consider attending a worship service there!

I had the opportunity to attend last Sunday's (October 23rd) Sacred Conversations service. As a Deacon, I greeted worshippers in the Atrium, handed out bulletins, and directed them upstairs. When I joined the service, I felt a peacefulness among the seven other congregants. Inspirational music was integrated throughout the service. Following the Scripture reading, Pastor Scott, who was leading this particular service, provided an interactive experience. Several people responded to Scott's questions, giving not only a response, but sharing a personal connection with the Scripture reading. An environment of comfort and safety was evident, and there was no pressure to verbally participate. Prayer was an important component of the service. There was an option to provide an offering in a basket on a table upon leaving.

I found this service to be very meaningful, and I look forward to attending again!

Blessings to you,

Margery Condon and Dan Carter,
Diaconate Co-Chairpersons

November is upon us.
This month we

last Sunday of the month brings us to Advent. November is the last month in our Fall Quarter for Church school and our Winter Quarter begins December 4.

Stay safe. Stay well,
See you at Church,

Bible Sunday was celebrated on Sunday,

worship service. The following third graders received their Bibles. Aiden Karbel and by all who attended.

Fellowship

We are working on a final date but our GIVE THANKS OVERNIGHT will be either Friday evening, November 18th or Saturday evening, November 19th. All youth, sixth through twelfth grade are invited to stay overnight at the church for Food, Fun, Faith and Fellowship. We will begin at 7PM. At this time we assemble the Thanksgiving Baskets for area families that are having a hard time making ends meet. We do need help with filling the baskets so we will be asking the congregation to bring in nonperishable food items. The items needed are: stuffing, cranberry sauce, canned vegetables, chicken broth, canned fruits and pie mixes. Also, that evening we will be baking because we are bringing back our Bake

Sale!!! Bake goods will be ready to sell on Sunday, November 20th after worship. This money will be used to cover Thanksgiving Basket expenses. A "turkey offering" will be collected on Thanksgiving Sunday to help buy turkeys. Through this donation we are able to supply each family with a turkey. If you are able to donate food items, there will be a special shopping atrium November

Thanksgiving cart in the beginning 6th. If you would like to help supply turkeys you can send a donation to the church, made out to First Parish UCC, and in the memo line write YF

Turkey donation. Thanksgiving Sunday, November 20th there will be "Turkey envelopes" in the pews.

Thank you.

On Monday, October 10th our Youth Church school class served dinner at Bon Appetit Meal Program in Biddeford. Here are a few pictures.

We all enjoyed being able to help others by serving a nutritious dinner. We decided to do something more and put together Trick or Treat bags for those who come by on Halloween.

In the Spotlight

This new article in "The Messenger" will focus on our different teams and groups here at First Parish. We hope this will bring more understanding to you and provide information as to what each team does, when they meet, and the current members of the team. Perhaps it may pique your interest enough to join a team and help First Parish keep the light shining for all to see.

Music and Arts

We are so blessed at First Parish to have the wonderful music be an integral part of the worship service each week. From the beautiful preludes and postludes that our Music Director, Jacqui Savage, shares to the magnificent anthems the choirs share, their music ministry is outstanding. We are also blessed with so many musicians who add their talents throughout the year.

Our youth are also engaged in the Junior and Youth choirs. Thank you to Jacqui and Susan Marston, our Junior Choir director, for their continued leadership with these choirs who also add so much.

For years, our Handbell Director Audrey Cabral has led a talented group of bell ringers. We are grateful for her steadfast leadership and welcome the wonderful music from these dedicated members.

If you are interested in joining any of these wonderful choirs, please reach out to Jacqui to learn more. Singers and ringers are always welcome!

Thornton Academy's Homestay Program

This program is looking for Homestay Families for the 2023-2024 school year. This program was started in 2010 and has been a fulfilling opportunity to both host families and their international students. This program has given international students a chance to fully immerse themselves in American life, learn about American values and customs and really hone their English language skills.

For families, it's an ideal way to gain an in-depth understanding of the world outside our borders, since students will be eager to talk about their home countries, family traditions and cultures. A Homestay experience will allow students and families to make personal connections and build life-long friendships. Families can rest assured that they will have the ongoing support from Thornton Academy throughout their time as Homestay Families.

If you would like to host one of Thornton Academy's Homestay Students or to learn more information about the Homestay Program, please contact Homestay Coordinator, Sara Demers, at 282-3361 ext 4557 or by email at sara.demers@thorntonacademy.org

THORNTON ACADEMY HOMESTAY PROGRAM

Thornton Academy's Homestay Program offers an alternative to dormitory living for new and returning international students seeking language and cultural immersion in a nurturing and supportive home environment. In turn, families can look forward to opening their homes to young people ready for new adventures who want to share their own family traditions and perspective. It's a year of discovery for both student and families!

Homestay matches are carefully considered based on information provided in applications completed by both perspective parents and students. Typically one or two students are placed with a Homestay family for either a single semester or the full school year. Some returning students may continue with the same Homestay family for multiple years. A written agreement between Thornton Academy and the Homestay Parents includes a provision for a stipend to offset expenses related to Homestay.

Participants in Thornton's Homestay Program become part of the larger Homestay Community where families support families, experiences are shared and lifetime connections are made!
