A Message from the Senior Minister
Rev. Scott Cousineau

We made it! The move took several trips back and forth, but we made it! We walked into the parsonage exhausted from days of packing and hours of loading, and found food on the counter and in the fridge! We knew that many of you labored for days preparing the house for us and we are so very grateful for all of your efforts. We felt the love of community as soon as we stepped through the door.

Renee and I are thrilled to begin this next chapter and become part of this church family! We still have unpacking to do and we are in the process of settling in, but your kindness and thoughtfulness have made those chores so much more pleasant. Thank you!

As I sit in my office typing, I am listening to the beautiful hymn, Wonderful Peace, by Warren Cornell. The lyrics speak of the wonderful peace that we receive from God, a peace that fills our souls and comforts us all the days of our lives. They are words of encouragement and reassurance, they are words of promise. Can we find rest in God's wonderful peace!

Some people have asked me if I feel anxious as I begin my ministry with you. Change can be unsettling and difficult, starting something new can be very stressful. Certainly, my head is spinning as I try to learn your history and all of your names, but I feel nothing but peace ... God's wonderful peace!

As my journey joins your journeys, I am excited about all of the opportunities that are ahead of us. I look forward to the ministries that we will share. I pray that you will experience nothing but God's peace.

Scott

Deacons' Corner

Can you stand one more reminder to wear your nametags at church? With the much-anticipated arrival of Rev. Scott Cousineau as our new settled pastor, it's more important than ever! We know he has been studying the church directory to help him put names with faces, but the directory is sadly out-of-date. There are so many new faces since that directory was compiled a few years ago. Let's do our part to make Scott feel welcome...and that includes wearing your nametags when you come to church! Temporary tags are available every Sunday if you don't have one, or can't find yours, and permanent tags will be made for you for the following Sunday.

With that reminder out of the way, we want to express our excitement at being part of Scott's ministry here at First Parish. The deacons stand ready to assist him in whatever way he needs and look forward enthusiastically to working with him on both practical and spiritual masters. A big, heartfelt welcome to you, Scott and Renee!

And a final, enormous thank you to Jeff Larsen who shepherded us so wonderfully through the transition. God is good!

Don't forget to wear your nametags!
Thanks and blessings,

Nadine Russell and Dan Carter, Co-chairs

September always seems to creep up on us. Maybe it is because we do not want to let go of the summer or maybe it is because there is so much to do to prepare for our program year. This is one of my favorite Sundays…all our families returning, programs starting up, church school classrooms with teachers and children enjoying all our wonderful Bible stories. Yes, this is a special Sunday.

Homecoming Sunday is September 8th. As we begin our worship together, that morning, we will be having a Blessing of the Backpacks. All children are invited to bring their Backpack to worship and place it in front of the altar. All adults are welcome to bring their briefcase, messenger bag or work bag and place that on the altar. Diaper bags too! Please remember to retrieve your bag after worship. We will begin age level Church school classes that day.

As we celebrate Homecoming Sunday may we also be aware of those without homes. We will be collecting items for Grace Street Ministries, a homeless ministry in Portland. Items include $5 gift cards to Dunkin Donuts or Subway, new or gently used hoodies (all sizes), new underwear (all sizes), new socks. For more information,

Pastor Jeff, at Grace Street Ministries, came last winter and shared with our youth about this amazing ministry. We were all very moved by his stories and wanted to help out in how ever way we can. There will be a shopping cart in the atrium, beginning Sunday, September 1 for all items.

Church school Registration is now open. Our new and improved website is ready for viewing and our Church school registration form is ready to be filled out. Visit our website: www.firstparishsaco.org click on Christian Education at the bottom of the page, then click on the Registration button. We encourage all children to be registered, birth through age 18. It makes our registration process so much smoother if children are registered prior to Homecoming Sunday. Thank you to everyone who has already registered. There is no need to stop at our registration table if you have filled out the online form, because, new this year, you can even sign the form online. Thank you to Tim Guerrette, who knows everything about computers. You're amazing, Tim. Hard copies are always available for anyone who was not able to register online.

Nametags will be very important this program year as we welcome our new settled pastor, Scott Cousineau to our church. Everyone knows who Pastor Scott is, but, Pastor Scott will not know everyone. So please be kind and wear your nametag so that Pastor Scott will be able to learn YOUR child(ren)'s name. Nametags will be out in the atrium every Sunday morning. Please return all nametags on your way out of the church. Thank you.

See you at Church.
Stay safe,

Kris

Confirmation Class

Confirmation, derived from the word confirm, is the time where each youth is now confirming the Baptismal vows that, most often, were taken for them by their parents. We are baptized into the church universal but we are confirmed into a local church. If you are ninth grade and older, we look forward to your participation in confirmation classes. Letters will be sent out to all those who are age eligible.

Welcome Back!

I can't believe the summer is coming to an end! It has been a joy working with Rev. Larson along with the summer drop in choir. I am looking forward to having all choirs back and singing with us during rehearsals and worship. The Senior Choir is looking for new members and the start of the year is the best time to try it out! If you would like to sing with us, please email me! There are folders for people interested in joining the choir in the Atrium. Please pick one up if you might be interested!

Cherub Choir

This year we will be starting a new choir for ages baby-5 years old!! Delaney Clifford will be leading them in a Music and Movement class every Sunday except the first Sunday of the month after church throughout the year. She will also be teaching them songs to sing in church during special services. Music and Movement class will include instrument play, scarf play, finger play, BUBBLES, dance, hoops, and lots of SINGING! Parents are invited to stay!

Junior Choir

The Junior Choir will be gathering again for another season of singing, beginning on Thursday, September 26th. Children in grades K-5 are welcome to join us. Children attending Fairfield School will be picked up by me and walked to Burns School. There we will pick up more singers and then head to First Parish to have a snack from 3:00-3:15. We will then head to the choir room to sing with Jacqui Savage, our music director, from 3:15-3:45. We sing a lot and laugh a lot, too. We are planning to sing for Senior Living residences in the area several times this year.

I hope your child/children will want to become part of the musical outreach of our church and community. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me by phone or email.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Greetings from the Prayer Group and Knitters. As you know we are blessed with a prayer shawl ministry here at First Parish. These beautiful shawls are made by knitters from our congregation. Our supply is now getting low and I'm putting out a call for more.

If you would like to contribute a shawl, please feel free to make one-or two or more! If you need directions and info on what yarn to use, please get in touch with Mary Johnson. (There is a specific pattern and a yarn type that works best for our purposes.)

These shawls, when blessed by our congregation, give so much comfort to ill and hurting people. What a wonderful gift we can give, and with your help we will continue this ministry.

Blessings,
Brenda

Kitchen Cleaning and Training

It's been a very long time since our First Parish kitchen has had a thorough cleaning. It's also time to do some much needed training for any group/team who use the kitchen, even if it's just for Coffee Hour. At least one representative from every group/team will be expected to attend a training session.

The week of September 16th will be the time to get these tasks completed. There will be sign up sheets in the Atrium for those of you who will be attending training and for those of you who will assist in cleaning the kitchen.

If you have any questions, please see Sue Burgess or contact her at sueb1972@gmail.com

Hello First Parish Church!!

What can I say? The Sea Dog Game was a great success. Eighty First Parish people came to the Game on August 24th. Since there is another article about the game in the Messenger that is all I will say, Except...

Thank You Sue and Jack Neumyer !!!!

Also: Thank First Parish. We are a vital and fun group. More great events will be planned.

It is here that I am going to borrow a page out of a dear friend's play book. Be the first to come to me with the secret word "Fun" and I will have something special I for you.

We are thinking about another invitation Sunday in the next year. You might remember, that in 2017, we had a Sunday in which we all invited a friend or a family member to attend church. Then after church a group of us went bowling. It was a Happy and Fun time of getting to know other church members and people from outside our church circle. Our Guests got to see what our Christian mission looks like first hand and meet our parishioners. There will be more information around this event in the future. Start thinking who should I invite? Relaxed

PLUS...IN 2019 We have two more great opportunities for you to get out in or mingle with the community and spread the Good News with these up-coming events.

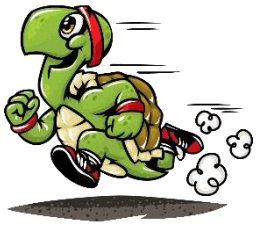
The Saco MainStreet Pumpkin Harvest Festival October 19th and The Parade of Lights December 7th.

May God Bless You First Parish

Rick Campbell

On Saturday, August 24th, 80 members & friends of First Parish had a stellar evening enjoying food, fun, and great company! At the last minute, Robert Guptill performed The National Anthem when the scheduled group cancelled. If you were there, you'll agree that we were all bursting with pride at his outstanding rendition.

Rev. Scott was among those who threw out a first pitch! The crowd in the picnic area cheered him on, and he was presented with a souvenir baseball.



We had several winners of the score/hits chart. Glen Ellen Roth, Brandi Flanagan, and Fred Connelly all chose a lucky square. The genius sports quiz was won by the dynamic duo of Kathy & Robert Guptill. Two heads are better than one!

At the 7th inning stretch, Peter Gray wowed the whole crowd with his singing of God, Bless America! us AND the Sea Dogs were victorious (1-0) even though someone in our group was wearing Yankees gear!!!

More News form the Good News Team

Please sign up to get your NEW First Parish T-Shirt. A new design will be ordered this fall and wouldn't it be great to all have matching T's to wear to FPC events.
